

Enjoy English 5 grade.

PRESENT CONTINUOUS

One is doing now, at the moment.

S.b. p.64 ex.44

1. What kind of books do you usually read?

2. What book are you reading at the moment?

3. Do you speak Spanish?

4. Are they speaking Spanish or Italian at the moment?

a) I am reading a story about Sherlock Holmes.

b) I usually read stories and books on history.

c) I think they are speaking French.

d) No, I don't. But I would like to learn it.

S.b. p.64 ex.45

1. We are watching the film in French

2. The little girl is staying in bed

3. Jane is watering the flowers

4. Mum is making a cake

5. They are buying their son a present

6. Chris is doing his homework

a) because we are going to have guests in the evening.

b) because it's his birthday soon.

c) because he wants to get a good mark.

d) because she has a sore throat.

e) because it's a good way to improve our language.

f) because it's a very hot day.

S.b. p.64 ex.46

speak + ing = speaking play + ing = playing

take + ing = taking put + ing = putting

S.b. p.65 ex.49

Look at the picture. Complete the text. Put the verbs in brackets in the present continuous.

It's a Friday evening. The Andersons are in their living room. Mr Anderson and his son Martin are sitting (sit) on the sofa.

They (play) chess. Mrs Anderson

(not / watch) TV. She (read) a magazine. Her daughter Sue (draw) a picture for her granny.

There are two pets in the family: a cat and a parrot. The cat

(not / look) out of the window. The parrot

(look) in the mirror.

S.b. p.65 ex.50

Say whether these sentences are true or false. Correct the false sentences.

1. The Andersons are in the kitchen.
2. Mr Anderson is sitting in the armchair.
3. Mr Anderson and his son Martin are playing chess.
4. Mrs Anderson is watering the plants.
5. Their daughter Sue is watching TV.
6. The cat is looking in the mirror.
7. The parrot is playing with the ball.